Statement from our Managing Director

Dear fellow friends,

TNB Fuel Services Sdn. Bhd. (TNBF) upholds the principles of good governance such as integrity, accountability, and fairness in its procurement activities. Similarly, we value our suppliers, service providers, agents, brokers, vendors, and vendors' contractors and subcontractors, including bidders and companies seeking to sell goods and services to TNBF (collectively "Suppliers") to embrace the commitment to these principles as set out in this Supplier Code of Conduct.

This Supplier Code of Conduct states how our business should be conducted and sets out guidance on the standards of behavior expected of all our Suppliers. It helps to ensure that we are meeting all legal and ethical obligations. As such, it is served as an integral part of our company's overall compliance strategy.

In order to achieve the high standards established in the TNB's corporate Shared Values, guiding principles and its Procurement Code of Conduct, TNBF takes a zero-tolerance approach towards fraud, bribery and corruption and any form of dishonesty in its business dealings. We are also committed to ensuring that working conditions in its operations and supply chain are safe, that all Suppliers and workers are treated with respect and dignity, and that business operations are environmentally responsible and conducted ethically.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

(JAMAL BIN YUSOFF)
Managing Director

BUSINESS ETHICS AND INTEGRITY

TNBF Suppliers are expected to conduct their business in an ethical manner and with integrity. Corruption, extortion and embezzlement are prohibited. Suppliers shall not pay or accept bribes or participate in other form of illegal inducements in business relationships with TNBF. The Suppliers shall comply with applicable laws and regulations concerning bribery, corruption, fraud and any other prohibited business practices.

COMPLIANCE

TNBF Suppliers must follow all relevant and applicable national and local laws and regulations, including but not limited to those related to sanctions, labour, health and safety, and the environment. Suppliers are expected to inform TNBF should there be any significant breaches, allegations of non-compliance or investigation into non-compliance by authorities related to any goods or services that such Supplier provides to TNBF that may materially affect a Supplier's ability to provide goods or services to TNBF.

HUMAN RIGHTS, DISCRIMINATION AND LABOUR

TNBF suppliers are expected to protect the human rights of their employees and to treat them with dignity and respect. This includes but is not limited to the following aspects:

- i. Suppliers shall ensure that their employees meet the minimum requirements under the applicable local laws and regulations. This shall include (but not limited to) mandatory rest time, minimum working age and wage, payment of overtime, contribution to provident/ retirement fund, etc.
- ii. Suppliers shall ensure that no employee is forced to work and is given fair opportunity to work in an environment that is free from discrimination, harassment, or coercion.

NO-GIFT STATEMENT

TNBF practices No-gift Policy. Hence, Suppliers are prohibited from offering any gifts and entertainment or other hospitality invitations that could create the appearance of improper influence.

Integrity has always been the key value to TNBF in conducting its businesses. In line with this practice:

- i. TNBF staff SHALL NOT ACCEPT OR GIVE personal gifts from or to external parties with business interest or in the course of any official duties with TNBF.
- ii. TNBF Suppliers ARE NOT ALLOWED TO OFFER OR GIVE any gift to TNBF staff.

PRIVACY & INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

TNBF suppliers shall comply with all relevant privacy laws and regulations with regards to the collection, disclosure, retention and/or processing of the personal data or information of customers or other individuals.

TNBF suppliers are reminded not to infringe any intellectual rights, copyrights, patents and trademarks. Where any intellectual property rights are developed as part of the contractual arrangement with TNBF, the ownership of such intellectual property right shall be as defined in the signed contract.

SAFETY AND HEALTH

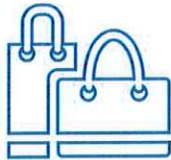

TNBF suppliers must prioritize the health and safety of their employees, contractors, and visitors by ensuring the following elements:

- i. Compliance with all relevant environment, health and safety laws and regulations.
- ii. Conduct risk assessments to identify potential hazards and risks.
- iii. Implementation of appropriate control measures to mitigate operational and transactional risks.
